ABOUT

Since 2006, Risen Savior Missions has served over 123 million meals to starving children. That's no small feat.

But charity of this magnitude doesn't happen without prayer, work, and discernment behind the scenes. What can we learn from this about how truly fruitful our labors can be?

Memorare to St. Joseph

Remember, O most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who implored your help and sought your intercession were left unassisted. Full of confidence in your power, I fly unto you and beg your protection. Despise not, O Guardian of the Redeemer, my humble supplication, but in your bounty hear and answer me. Amen.

“Teach a Man to Fish: Teaching families to be Self-Sufficient as a Holistic Approach to Charity”

About the Presenter:

Jerry Krosnowski started lay missionary work in 1968 working with the homeless in Detroit, Michigan. Since then, he has supported work in the mission fields for over 50 years in countries like New Guinea, South Africa, Tanzania, Haiti, and Zimbabwe.

During a 2006 trip the Philippines Jerry witnessed the shocking poverty and starvation and he responded by forming the American public charity Risen Savior Missions , and his life has been forever changed by that entire experience. Today, by the grace of God, the impact has expanded to over 1,000 different holistic feeding sites, that have served over 123 million meals to starving children since 2006.
