

Mortgage Banker - Commercial Real Estate

Venture Commercial Mortgage (VCM) is a full-service commercial mortgage banking firm providing loan origination, loan servicing, and equity procurement for commercial real estate properties. Combining the creativity and flexibility of an independent firm with the financial backing of major national lenders, Venture Commercial Mortgage has become one of the most highly respected commercial real estate mortgage firms in the Upper Midwest. We offer a range of commercial real estate financing options for investors and owner-occupied properties.

We are adding to our origination team! VCM is seeking an experienced and talented individual who is passionate about commercial real estate finance. If you have experience in, and knowledge of the commercial real estate finance world, are committed to developing your own portfolio, confident you have the tenacity to build a successful career as a commercial mortgage banker, we welcome a conversation to see if our culture is the right fit for you.

Position Summary

The objective of our mortgage bankers is to network, develop and strengthen client, and lender relationships by working with principals of commercial real estate properties, understand their financing objectives, facilitate discussions and details and place loans with relationship lenders who meet client goals.

Our Success Starts with You

Acting with the highest level of integrity, our success is dependent on the number and depth of individual relationships for which we create value. VCM is a growth-oriented organization with the expertise and resources required to aid in your success.
